Enclosure(s)

FBI FOIPA Addendum

As referenced in our letter responding to your Freedom of Information/Privacy Acts (FOIPA) request, the FBI FOIPA Addendum provides information applicable to your request. Part 1 of the Addendum includes standard responses that apply to all requests. Part 2 includes standard responses that apply to requests for records about individuals to the extent your request seeks the listed information. Part 3 includes general information about FBI records, searches, and programs.

Part 1: The standard responses below apply to all requests:

- (i) 5 U.S.C. § 552(c). Congress excluded three categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIPA [5 U.S.C. § 552(c)]. FBI responses are limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIPA. Additional information about the FBI and the FOIPA can be found on the www.fbi.gov/foia website.
- (ii) Intelligence Records. To the extent your request seeks records of intelligence sources, methods, or activities, the FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(1), (b)(3), and as applicable to requests for records about individuals, PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(1), (b)(3), and (j)(2)]. The mere acknowledgment of the existence or nonexistence of such records is itself a classified fact protected by FOIA exemption (b)(1) and/or would reveal intelligence sources, methods, or activities protected by exemption (b)(3) [50 USC § 3024(i)(1)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that any such records do or do not exist.

Part 2: The standard responses below apply to all requests for records on individuals:

- (i) Requests for Records about any Individual—Watch Lists. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of any individual's name on a watch list pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that watch list records do or do not exist.
- (ii) Requests for Records about any Individual—Witness Security Program Records. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could identify any participant in the Witness Security Program pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(3) and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(3), 18 U.S.C. 3521, and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.
- (iii) Requests for Records for Incarcerated Individuals. The FBI can neither confirm nor deny the existence of records which could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any incarcerated individual pursuant to FOIA exemptions (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and PA exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. §§ 552/552a (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(F), and (j)(2)]. This is a standard response and should not be read to indicate that such records do or do not exist.

Part 3: General Information:

- (i) Record Searches. The Record/Information Dissemination Section (RIDS) searches for reasonably described records by searching systems or locations where responsive records would reasonably be found. A standard search normally consists of a search for main files in the Central Records System (CRS), an extensive system of records consisting of applicant, investigative, intelligence, personnel, administrative, and general files compiled by the FBI per its law enforcement, intelligence, and administrative functions. The CRS spans the entire FBI organization, comprising records of FBI Headquarters, FBI Field Offices, and FBI Legal Attaché Offices (Legats) worldwide; Electronic Surveillance (ELSUR) records are included in the CRS. Unless specifically requested, a standard search does not include references, administrative records of previous FOIPA requests, or civil litigation files. For additional information about our record searches, visit www.fbi.gov/services/information-management/foipa/requesting-fbi-records.
- (ii) FBI Records. Founded in 1908, the FBI carries out a dual law enforcement and national security mission. As part of this dual mission, the FBI creates and maintains records on various subjects; however, the FBI does not maintain records on every person, subject, or entity.
- (iii) Requests for Criminal History Records or Rap Sheets. The Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division provides Identity History Summary Checks – often referred to as a criminal history record or rap sheet. These criminal history records are not the same as material in an investigative “FBI file.” An Identity History Summary Check is a listing of information taken from fingerprint cards and documents submitted to the FBI in connection with arrests, federal employment, naturalization, or military service. For a fee, individuals can request a copy of their Identity History Summary Check. Forms and directions can be accessed at www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/identity-history-summary-checks. Additionally, requests can be submitted electronically at www.edo.cjis.gov. For additional information, please contact CJIS directly at (304) 625-5590.
- (iv) National Name Check Program (NNCP). The mission of NNCP is to analyze and report information in response to name check requests received from federal agencies, for the purpose of protecting the United States from foreign and domestic threats to national security. Please be advised that this is a service provided to other federal agencies. Private Citizens cannot request a name check.

Rabin Asserts Israel to Seek Lasting Peace

By MARYLN SCHWARTZ

Israel can successfully defend itself against all Arab nations even with limited Russian support, if Israel receives adequate military equipment and economic aid, Israeli Ambassador Yitzhak Rabin said here Thursday night.

Speaking to the Jewish Welfare Federation Advance Gifts Division in the Statler Hilton, Rabin said Israel can withstand all but massive Russian intervention on the Arab side.

He said they could do this despite the fact that there are now more Russians flying supersonic planes in the Egyptian air force than there are pilots flying supersonic planes in the Israel air force.

The hero of 1967's 6-Day War said Israel will not yield one inch of occupied territory unless peace is achieved. Because, he said:

"Current boundaries provide the best lines to defend Israel if there is to be another outbreak of war."

"He told the gathering "The stronger Israel is militarily and economically, the better chance there is to postpone and prevent war and achieve lasting peace."

In an interview earlier Thursday, Rabin said his country is willing to explore every avenue that could possibly lead to peace in the Middle East—even negotiation by correspondence.

And, Rabin said, current peace talks between U.N. negotiator Gunnar Jarring and ambassadors from Israel, Egypt and Jordan are, in effect, negotiation by correspondence "because Jarring is contacting one taking that information to another and then back and forth again."

"Never before in history has such a method of negotiation brought a peace agreement, but it is an area we decided to pursue because we are willing to try anything," Rabin said.

The ambassador would not comment on a peace plan Jarring reportedly offered Thursday which would have Israel give up occupied land on the Sinai Peninsula and the fortress of Shar El Sheikh.

"We have agreed that this must be a quiet diplomacy, that we will discuss nothing about the Jarring negotiations until Jarring himself releases the information."

Rabin said he feels peace is in the hand of the Egyptians.

"First they must decide to stop being Russian puppets and then they must be reconciled to the fact that Israel is there to be a Jewish state. When they begin to serve themselves and not the Russians, then they will begin to make a real peace," he said.

The ambassador said he felt the activity of the Jewish Defense League in the United States "has no real effect on Israel."

Senate Gives OK To Rabin Speech

Associated Press

The Senate agreed today to meet in joint session with the House a week from tomorrow to hear an address by Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin.

Rabin has accepted an invitation from President Ford to visit the United States from Jan. 27 to Feb. 4 for talks on the Middle East.

Topics likely to be discussed by Rabin and Ford include new developments in Lebanon, the U.N. Security Council's Mideast debate — which Israel is boycotting — and bilateral matters.

THE SECOND WORLD CONFERENCE IN SUPPORT OF THE ARAB PEOPLES

Cairo 25-28 January 1969

"IS it reasonable that legends thousands of years old should be the pretext for armed invasion aimed at driving away an entire population, the Palestinian People, from the heart of the Arab nation and that such invasion should threaten other populations living between the Nile and the Euphrates? Is it reasonable that the pretext for this invasion should be the return to the Promised Land?"

This was how President Nasser addressed the World Conference in Support of the Arab Peoples when it met in Cairo, on 25th January. Some 400 personalities from all over the world, in fact from 75 countries and 15 international organizations, came to express their solidarity with the Arab people in their struggle against Israel and its imperialist and expansionist policies in the Middle East. Among these prominent people were distinguished figures of international stature such as the British historian Arnold Toynbee, the Soviet writer Sholokov, the French writer Jacques Berque, Professor Marcel Liebman, from Belgium, together with many others who achieved fame in political, labour, cultural and social activities. Moreover, the presence of a number of Jewish personalities bore witness to the fact that the Arab-Israeli conflict is neither religious nor racial in essence but is primarily concerned with putting an end to the expansionist aggressive policies of Israel and restoring the national rights of the Palestinian people who have been deprived of their land and of their very identity by Zionism. Aptly enough, the Conference chose as its motto and as its theme "Peace and Justice in the Middle East"; as it is obviously clear that no peace can ever be secure and lasting unless it embodies basic requirements of justice. At the same time, the Conference made it its business to bring to world opinion the facts of the Middle East situation and to try to dispel the common ignorance of these facts that have been hitherto all too much concealed and distorted by every conceivable trick-half-truths or gross misrepresentations—at the disposal of Zionist propaganda. Furthermore, there is the correlated task of clearing up the load of confusions and schizophrenic stands taken by many supporters of Israel and wilfully nurtured and perpetuated for the past 20 years by a callous Zionist propaganda which used every means within its reach to silence the often timorous voice of so many "liberally-minded" people. For, how else could they have sustained for so long in others the belief that the claim to a Jewish national identity is a rightful claim whereas that of the dispossessed Palestinians is dismissed and written off as the bloody pranks of fanatical Arabs bent on eradicating the very existence of a valiant little people, long persecuted and whose only wish is to come to rest in the land that was promised. As for the unfortunate "Arab refugees", the liberally-minded supporter of Israel would probably shed a passing tear and argue: "Couldn't they settle in one of the neighbouring Arab countries? After all, if these countries are prepared to go to war for the sake of these refugees, or so they say, wouldn't it be better to assimilate them in their own population and so peace would come to the area?" A very attractive solution indeed! You just remove the stumbling block and be friends again! If that is not moral schizophrenia, what is it then? In this twentieth century how could a true liberal condone the actions of a country such as Israel which counts as one of the few countries of the world which have elevated racialism and offensive religious bigotry to the level of a State policy?

When he spoke to the Conference, Mr. Nabil Shaath, representing the Palestinian resistance movement, Al-Fatah, stressed the fact that the Palestinian people have been deprived of their right to self-determination and then subjected to the most ignoble form of imperialism, that which uproots an entire population and drives it away from its own land in order to make room for another group of people. "In the circumstances," he said, "after all doors had been shut in the face of our Palestinian people, the people had no choice but to resort to violence to recover their rights. Consequently, our people launched their national liberation revolution at the beginning of 1965—that is to say before the June 1967 war—determined to make sacrifices until victory is achieved by fully liberating their territory and returning to their homes." "We are neither fanatics, nor blood-thirsty terrorists", he went on, "we simply cannot endure any longer the misery and humiliations of the dispersion which has been imposed on us. We are entering the fifth year of our Palestinian armed revolution after having scored many victories and achieved many gains which proved our people's presence in the battlefield and manifested our people's will for a comprehensive and long-term popular revolution. This revolution strives for the establishment of a democratic Palestinian State in which Palestinians of all communities—Muslims, Christians and Jews—will live in a progressive democratic society. Our Palestinian revolution, which is an embodiment of our people's will, wishes to assert that it does not fight against the Jews nor hate Judaism. It is fighting Zionist colonialism in our country. In fact, one of the aims of our revolution is to liberate the Jews from Zionism which has dispersed our people and imported Jews in order to use them as tools serving its expansionist ambitions." And the representative of the Palestinian resistance movement concluded: "Our people have lived side by side with the Jews for many years. They provided them with a haven against European persecution. Likewise our people welcomed other communities, such as the Armenians, when they were the victims of Ottoman persecution. Our Palestinian revolution opens its heart and mind to members of humanity who wish to live in the free and democratic Palestinian society, regardless of colour, religion and creed."

In this light, the U.N. resolution of 22nd November, 1967, is no longer relevant because it aims, among other things, at confirming the State of Israel within "secure and recognized borders": thus sacrificing the Palestinian people on the altar of peace at the expense of justice. For this, indeed, is the heart of the matter, as it is expressed clearly in the motto and theme of the Conference: "Peace and Justice in the Middle East", peace and justice in one and indivisible concept. And no peace could ever be worth seeking let alone lasting if the price to be paid for it be the humiliation and uprooting of countless people.

One of the major conclusions to be drawn from the Cairo Conference is that the Palestinian liberation movement has become a political factor of great importance in the Middle East and that it cannot be any longer ignored. Witness to that what a former French minister, M. Robert Buron, who was among the French delegation attending the Conference, said to Eric Rouleau, of Le Monde: "If the Israeli fact became a reality in 1947-48, the major consequence of the Six Day War was to crystallize the Palestinian fact. In the long term, Israel could regret having provoked herself the rebirth of the Palestinian nation."

YITZHAK RABIN

The 22nd Annual Conference on World Affairs was held Monday through Friday, April 14-18, 1969, at the University of Colorado, at Boulder, Colorado. A brochure concerning this conference reflects that on Wednesday, April 16, 1969, at 8:00 p.m., Yitzhak Rabin, Ambassador of Israel, Washington, D. C., was listed as the feature speaker at Macky Auditorium, University of Colorado Campus, speaking on Israel's future in the Middle East.

"The Denver Post" newspaper, dated April 17, 1969, contained an article reflecting that Rabin spoke as scheduled and stated in part that peace will be restored to the Middle East, but not until Israel is recognized as a nation by its Arab neighbors. The article stated approximately 500 persons attended this session, including a group of Arabs, apparently University of Colorado students, who carried placards into Macky Auditorium, where the address was given protesting Israel military practice. The Arabs, when asked to lower their signs and be seated, stood silently, but steadfastly at either side of the auditorium and refused to be seated. They remained at their posts throughout the ambassador's speech. The article continues Rabin stated, "The only peace in the Middle East that can be acceptable is peace between the Arab countries and Israel -- or Israel and the Arab countries. The major obstacle is that the Arab countries refuse to recognize that Israel exists.

"Peace to Israel means peace between the parties to the conflict -- without external influence from the world's 'big powers'.

"Open boundaries would permit a free exchange of ideas, 'a flow of views'. We cannot maintain peace without the opportunity to talk to each other." Rabin also said that when Egypt announced its blockade of the Straits of the Tiran at the entrance to the Gulf of Agaba, thirteen world powers, including the United States, 'forgot' a previous declaration made by them to the United Nations that they would guarantee free, innocent passage through the strait.

An established source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Boulder Police Department and the Colorado University campus police handled this program in an excellent manner and the few Arab students who were carrying signs protesting the speaker caused no difficulty or confusion and remained silent during the speech.

Israeli envoy blames Soviet for crisis

Russia hopes to win and influence Arab clients by keeping the Mideast situation near a boiling point.

That was the opinion expressed yesterday by Gen. Itzhak Rabin, Israeli ambassador to the United States, in a press conference in the Jewish Community Center.

Rabin said, "The Russians advance their interests by keeping tension in the area so that they can offer political and military support to the Arabs.

The former chief of staff of the Israeli armed forces said he believed the Soviets wanted to keep the conflict short of an all-out war.

Rabin emphasized that Israel would remain adamant against any big-power settlement of the Mideast crisis. "It's up to the countries involved to put an end to the war," he said.

Rabin came to Harrisburg yesterday to attend the Israel bond drive dinner in the Jewish Community Center, where he was guest of honor.

During the predinner interview, the veteran of all three major Arab-Israeli conflicts flare-ups along the Suez Canal are made possible, he indicated, by Russian military aid that has rebuilt Egyptian forces shattered in the June war of 1967.

"The Soviets and Egyptians don't want peace," he said. "but a continued war of attrition."

Rabin believed the Arabs were not now inclined to engage in an all-out war, but if it did break out, he saw no reason why the United States and the Soviet Union would be dragged in for an eye-to-eye confrontation.

As for Arab pressure along the cease-fire lines, Rabin said Israel could withstand this kind of war of attrition for five or 50 years — "The burden on us will never be great enough to cause us to change our position."

Rabin said enough aid is forthcoming from "friendly nations" to enable Israel to withstand anything the combined Arab armies of some half million men can dish out. "We have the means to defeat the Arabs and deter any attempt for further all-out wars."

b7C

[REDACTED] advised that the National Executive Board meeting of the AJC is to be held at the Pontchartrain Hotel, Detroit, Mich., 10/24-26/69. The agenda for this meeting lists the Honorable YITZHAK RABIN, Ambassador of Israel to the U.S., as the special guest for the luncheon session at 12:30 p.m., on 10/26/69.

Sgt. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] told him that the AJC is concerned that recent information indicates a possibility of Arab activity directed against prominent Jews and/or Jewish institutions in the U.S. Because of the large Arab community in Detroit, the AJC was concerned that some type of action may be taken during the Ambassador's visit to Detroit. Sgt. [REDACTED] said that the Detroit PD will take steps to offer protection to Ambassador RABIN.

Israel bond drive chairman listens to ambassador

Mideast Outlook Bleak, Rabin Says

The prospect of peace in the Middle East is bleak because the Soviet Union supports the Arab states, Yitzhak Rabin, the Israeli ambassador to the U.S., said here Sunday night.

Rabin, ambassador for 18 months and Israel's former military chief, maintained that his country is militarily ready, regardless of protracted conflict with the United Arab Republic.

Fund-Raising Dinner

"It doesn't look to me that there is a possibility of peace, a real one, in the near future," Rabin said at a fund-raising dinner sponsored by the Buffalo

Committee for State of Israel Bonds in Hotel Statler Hilton.

"Only Israel's military strength prevents war," said Rabin who was a major-general in the victorious Israeli armed forces in the Six-Day War.

He took a dim view of the United Nations' peace-keeping ability because of the composition of the 15-member Security Council.

Security Tight

"One-third of the members of the Security Council are either at war with Israel or don't have diplomatic relations with Israel," the ambassador said.

A security detail of Buffalo private agency police were on duty in and outside the Golden Ballroom where the dinner was held.

It was learned, but unconfirmed by official sources, that protective precautions were taken for the 47-year-old ambassador's air trip and stay in Buffalo. The crew on the jet in which he traveled from Washington to Buffalo was unaware an ambassador was aboard.

Bond Goal $1 Million

Rabin jokingly "referred" to the security as a tactic for keeping attendants in the room for the long program.

"I feel quite safe and secure in the United States," he said. "I don't deny that I feel much more secure to walk in Jerusalem than in Washington." He was born in Jerusalem.

Rabin and S. Robert Scheur, general chairman of the bond drive, presented an Israel Prime Minister's Medal to Leo Bachner of Buffalo for contributions to Israel's development. The honorary designation was signed by Premier Golda Meir.

Buffalo's bond goal is $1 million. The bond campaign will continue until the end of the year.

In an interview on his arrival at Greater Buffalo International Airport, Rabin said that Israel is playing a waiting game in its relations with the Arab states.

Israel will never completely eliminate the Arab terrorists as long as the Arab countries continue to sponsor and support them, he said. However, the steps taken against the terrorists have been effective and these groups can no longer "threaten Israel's security."

Both sides are now suffering from the effects of the limited war, he said, in different ways. The question which would decide the issue, however, was not how much you did suffer, but how much you would suffer.

"The war is going to last until one side comes to the conclusion that the price it is paying is too high," Rabin said. "For us the price can not be too high, for we are fighting for survival."

Face Loss

Israel he said, was not a threat to the existence of Arab nations as, nations, or to Arabs as individuals. However, the Israelis face the possibility of the loss of their national identity.

"Both sides are suffering and both sides have to wait the other side out," Rabin said. "We are fighting for more than they are, and we think that will give us longer breath," he added.

Sacramento, California

February 19, 1970

RE: YITZHAK RABIN, ISRAELI AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED STATES

On February 17, 1970, Lieutenant [redacted] Sacramento Police Department, Intelligence Unit, advised that the Ambassador arrived in Sacramento on United Airlines Flight #877 at 10:55 a.m., which flight originated in Portland, Oregon, and had one stop in Reno, Nevada. [redacted] stated that the Ambassador and his party lunched and had some free time until about 3:00 p.m., when they toured the Capitol area and had an audience with Governor Reagan. After this they went to the Woodlake Inn for dinner and a speech by the Ambassador before approximately 450 people attending the 120th anniversary celebration of B'nai Israel of Sacramento.

b7C

Lieutenant [redacted] noted that 15 protesters calling themselves the American Committee for Justice in the Middle East picketed the hotel at this time. He advised that the group was composed of neatly-clad housewives and their children and some students. He stated that the demonstration was quiet and caused little disturbance. He advised that the picket signs protested Israeli violence but noted that the guests of the Inn did not respond other than to be curious concerning the signs.

b7C

Lieutenant [redacted] advised further that the Ambassador met with the State Senate on February 18, 1970, and he departed Sacramento around 10:00 a.m. via chartered private aircraft from Executive Airport enroute to San Jose, California.

Re WFO airtel to Bureau, 3/6/70.

Cincinnati not in receipt of WFO airtel dated 3/4/70 in captioned case.

On 3/11/70 Sgt. [REDACTED] Intelligence Unit, Columbus, Ohio, PD, advised as follows:

b6
b7C

On the morning of 3/9/70 he received notification of the planned arrival of YITZHAK RABIN, Israeli Ambassador to the United States, at Columbus, Ohio, by air. Although he was furnished a flight number and arrival time, both proved to be in error. Representatives of the Columbus PD waited for and met RABIN at Port Columbus Airport at 4:42 PM, 3/9/70. When it was learned RABIN was scheduled to make a speech at Dennison University, Granville, Ohio, that evening, Sgt. [REDACTED] arranged with the Franklin County SO for his security. Captain [REDACTED] Franklin County SO, personally escorted RABIN from Columbus, Ohio, to Granville, Ohio, where RABIN was turned over to security officers at Dennison University.

On March 20, 1970, Chief William F. Quinn, Newton, Massachusetts, Police Department, advised that Yitzhak Rabin, Israeli Ambassador to the United States, was scheduled to appear at Temple Emanuel, Newton, Massachusetts, on March 22, 1970. Chief Quinn further advised that upon Rabin's expected arrival at Logan International Airport, East Boston, Massachusetts, on March 22, 1970, the Newton, Massachusetts, Police Department was to have provided Rabin a police escort from the airport to Newton, Massachusetts.

On March 26, 1970, Chief Quinn advised that the above-scheduled appearance of Rabin did not materialize since Rabin was reportedly recalled to Israel shortly prior to his scheduled appearance at Temple Emanuel. Chief Quinn was in possession of no details concerning Rabin's reported recall to Israel.

Israeli Ambassador Hopes U.S. Won't Cut Off Aid

ITZHAK RABIN

Israel's ambassador to the United States said yesterday in Rochester he hopes the "United States won't be blackmailed by a dictator" and cut off military aid to Israel.

Itzhak Rabin said in an interview at Monroe County Airport that he believes United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser "is now telling the United States that to continue military aid to Israel would have dangerous consequences for decades to come."

Rabin, here to address a Rochester Israel Bond Committee dinner at Temple Beth El in Brighton, said, "I hope the United States won't be blackmailed by a dictator who doesn't want peace in a war of attrition and whose personal goal is to crush Israel.

"And I fail to believe the Soviet Union is interested in real peace either."

Rabin conceded the presence of Russian pilots flying for the Egyptian Air Force has not been confirmed.

But he added, "There is no doubt that they are flying Egyptian planes."

Rabin cited remarks three days ago by Soviet Premier Aleksei N. Kosygin who "didn't confirm the pilots' presence, but he didn't deny it either."

The ambassador pointed to the presence of more than 5,000 Soviet technicians and soldiers in Egypt and sophisticated ground-to-air missiles in Arab nations as evidence of Soviet intervention.

At the dinner, Leon W. Germanow, 1400 East Ave., president of Germanow-Simon Machine Co., Inc., was honored as the bond committee's "Man of the Year." Germanow was chairman for Israel Bonds in Rochester in 1966-67 and is a past president of the United Jewish Welfare Fund of Rochester.

He also is president of the Jewish Home and Infirmary, serves on the boards of the Jewish Council Community Council of Rochester and Western New York Region of the Anti-Defamation League and is a member of temples Beth El and B'rith Kodesh.

Rabin, before becoming ambassador to this country, was the chief architect of Israeli strategy in the 1967 Six-Day War.

The ambassador stated Israel's main aim is peace, but with security. He added that within the context of peace, formal boundaries would have to be created.

Israeli Ambassador:

Mideast Peace

Bleak Prospect

By MIKE ZAVADIL

"The only factor that can deter the war in the Middle East," said the Israeli ambassador to the United States here last night, "is Israel's military strength."

"As long as the Arab nations are unwilling to make peace, I don't believe peace will be achieved," Ambassador Yitshak Rabin said.

"If one is to be realistic . . . the prospects for peace at present are very bleak, very small."

Rabin spoke at a dinner meeting of the Rochester Israel Bond Committee in Temple Beth El. The meeting marked the 20th year of the bond campaign and the celebration of the 22nd year of Israeli independence.

Earlier in the evening, the bond committee honored Leon M. Germanow of 1400 East Ave. as "man of the year." Germanow, president of Germanow-Simon Machine Co., Inc., was chairman of Israeli bond campaigns for 1966 and 1967. He is past president of the United Jewish Welfare Fund of Rochester, a member of its board of directors, and is active in other Jewish community institutions.

Mayor Stephen May presented Ambassador Rabin a key to the city, describing him as a "champion of Israel's freedom."

The ambassador underlined his nation's desire for reconciliation and the uniqueness of the Middle East conflict: "I can't recall any other example in which one side tries to bring the total destruction of the other side while the other side tries to bring about peaceful accommodation."

And, he said, only the nations of the Middle East can resolve the crisis that exploded into six days of open warfare almost three years ago.

"We believe that only the Arab countries and Israel . . . once they decide to put aside war, would achieve peace. Only they can put an end to the war."

On 10/30/70, Sergeant [REDACTED]

Illinois, advised that the demonstration mentioned in referenced airtel was held in front of Cahn Auditorium, Northwestern University. He stated that approximately 50 persons carrying a banner worded "Free Palestine" quietly stood from 3:45 pm until 4:15 pm on 10/30/70.
He further advised that there was no violence and that no arrests were made.

Subject, the Israeli Ambassador, did appear in Omaha, Nebraska, 11/4 and 5/70. He spoke at an Omaha, Nebraska Chamber of Commerce luncheon; he spoke at an Israeli bond rally at a synagogue in Omaha, and he was interviewed by a local Omaha television station. During the television program, he made mention of the fact that Israel did not intend to violate the cease fire agreement unless forced to do so and if the cease fire agreement continued, Israel would continue to respect that agreement.

It is reported that he was scheduled to speak at a luncheon in Lincoln, Nebraska, but cancelled that appointment and left Omaha late 11/5/70.

Re WFO airtels to the Bureau dated 11/2/70 and 11/10/70.

Investigation by the Chicago Office has revealed that Ambassador RABIN did not speak in Chicago on 11/15/70, but did stay in Chicago for a short time while changing planes enroute to Michigan City, Indiana.

On 11/13/70, appropriate local agencies were notified of RABIN's probable presence for a short period in the Chicago area. No incidents or disturbances were noted during this time.

The current issue of "The Sentinel", a Jewish community weekly newspaper, carried a full page advertisement which showed that the State of Israel Bond Drive was holding a dinner honoring Senator CHARLES PERCY as "Man of the Year" on 12/9/70, from 6 to 9 PM. at the International Ballroom of the Hilton Hotel. Ambassador RABIN was listed as the guest speaker for this occasion.

WFO should contact its established sources re this matter and forward any information received to Chicago. Chicago will alert logical established sources concerning RABIN's possible appearance in Chicago on 12/9/70, and will notify appropriate agencies.

Re WFO airtel to Bureau, 11/10/70; Chicago airtel to Bureau, 11/16/70.

On 11/13/70, appropriate local agencies and [REDACTED] were notified of RABIN's probable presence in Michigan City, Indiana 11/15/70 for the purpose of making a speech. b7D

On 11/16/70, the News Dispatch, a Michigan City, Indiana daily newspaper reported on page one RABIN, a soldier-diplomat, had made a speech on 11/15/70 at the 17th Sinai Forum held at the Sinai Temple. According to the article which was captioned "Israeli Ambassador Lists 'Peace Formula' at Forum," RABIN gave the Israeli point of view of the chances of peace in the Middle East. The article further noted RABIN was introduced by RICHARD ROSENBERG, Executive Vice-President of Josam Manufacturing Company, who first met RABIN in 1949 during a tour of service by ROSENBERG in Israel.

On 11/16/70, [REDACTED] advised he had heard RABIN made a speech in Michigan City, Indiana, but he did not attend and could provide no details of RABIN's speech or other activities while in Indiana. b7D that some persons were expected from out-of-town to participate in the demonstration against the Israeli Bond Drive. He stated that the "Christ the King Church," 25 West Jackson, Chicago, Illinois, would open its doors at twelve hundred hours on December 9, 1970 as a meeting place for those participants coming in from out-of-town.

It should be noted it is possible (ENU) [REDACTED] in referenced WFO airtel is identical with [REDACTED] mentioned in the [REDACTED] b6

On December 9, 1970, [redacted] [redacted] Hilton Hotel, 720 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, advised that there would be 35 patrolmen from the Chicago Police Department on duty during the demonstration with more standing by if necessary. He stated that all rooms at the hotel used by Ambassador Rabin and for the Israeli Bond Dinner were being fully checked by the Chicago Police Department at 4:00 p.m. prior to occupancy.

b7c

On December 9, 1970, an employee of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed the demonstration and counter-demonstration held at the Hilton Hotel, 720 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. At 5:05 p.m., a group of approximately thirty-five young people bearing two large flags carrying the slogans, "Zionism is Jewish National Liberation" and "Israel is Only Progressive Force in Middle East," started demonstrating at the Hilton Hotel. They carried various other placards stating, "Israel Will Live" and carrying the Star of David. One placard was noted carrying the above slogan on one side and "Jewish Defense League" on the other.

Various young people handed out literature near this group. One leaflet advised that "Zionism is Jewish National Liberation" and expressed a desire to show solidarity with Israel. It was signed, "Chicago Union of Jewish Students." Another leaflet requested that the United States get out of Viet Nam and the Middle East and allow people in both places to have self-determination. It was signed, "Hashomer Hatzair - Socialist Zionist Youth Movement." This group disbanded at 6:50 p.m.

At 5:20 p.m., a group of approximately forty persons started demonstrating on another section of the sidewalk in front of the Hilton Hotel. By 5:30 p.m., this group had grown to about one hundred persons. They shouted various slogans and carried various placards, all attempting to show solidarity with the Palestinian cause. Two leaflets were also handed out by young people near this group. One of these contained various slogans and ideology consistent with the Palestinian viewpoint and was signed by the "Anti-Imperialist Committee." The other leaflet advertised a demonstration to take place on December 30, 1970 to "fight racist unemployment" and was put out by the Students for a Democratic Society/Worker Student Alliance (SDS/WSA). This leaflet also advised that the SDS National Convention was to be held on December 27-30, 1970 in Chicago, Illinois.

A characterization of the SDS/WSA is attached to this communication in the appendix pages.

This group demonstrated until 7:00 p.m. and then went across Michigan Avenue and held a fifteen-minute meeting prior to breaking up about 7:15 p.m.

No incidents occurred during the above demonstration; and no arrests were made.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society, commonly known as SDS, came into existence at a founding convention held during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," Marxist-Leninist ideology of various shadings became predominant during 1968-1969 with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. SDS moved from involvement in the civil rights struggle to an anti-Vietnam war position to advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist line linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. All major factions within SDS embrace Marxism-Leninism and identify internationally with China, Cuba and North Vietnam as countries leading the worldwide struggles against the United States. However, the Soviet Union was regarded as imperialist and with the Communist Party, United States of America, "revisionist" in nature.

SDS operated under a national constitution which called for an annual National Convention (NC) and quarterly National Council meetings wherein programs were initiated and debated. Three national officers were elected annually with a National Interim Committee to run the organization. Regional offices and college chapters elected delegates to the national meetings but each functioned independently on local matters. Its official publication "Fire" (formerly "New Left Notes") last appeared in December, 1969.

Internal factionalism of serious proportions developed during 1968-1969 and the following three factions evolved as a result of a split at the June, 1969, NC: Weatherman, Worker Student Alliance (WSA), and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The effect of the split on SDS chapters throughout the country was divisive. Some aligned with one or the other of the three major factions. Others, unable to identify with any faction, disassociated with SDS completely and changed names.

The SDS national office in recent years was located at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. It was closed in February, 1970.

The Weatherman and RYM groups no longer consider themselves associated with SDS, and the WSA group refers to itself as the true SDS.
